

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Seattle, 8th June 2023

Solas Gallery presents Lisa Ahlberg's Rat City Streets, opening 22nd July.

Solas Gallery is excited to present Lisa Ahlberg's Rat City Streets.

Rat City Streets is a vivid and intimate portrait of the White Center neighborhood and its residents. Lisa Ahlberg has spent more than 20 years photographing in the White Center neighborhood, making portraits reflecting the rich diversity of the neighborhood's residents. Her work documents how the urban landscape shifts over time as Seattle's gentrification encroaches on the neighborhood.

Lisa Ahlberg is a Seattle based portrait and documentary photographer interested in people's relationship to place.

She is a graduate of the Photographic Center Northwest, a center for the photographic arts in the Pacific Northwest. From 2009 - 2015, she was a member of its Board of Directors, then its president. She remains an active member of the community of photographers it serves.

Rat City Streets runs from 22nd July to 26th August, with an opening reception on 22nd July, 3-5pm. Solas is open 1-5pm Saturdays, or by appointment.

<https://www.solas.gallery/exhibitions/lisa-ahlberg-rat-city-streets>

Image Credit: Gary on Delridge, 2001, Lisa Ahlberg

Cian Hayes / cian@solas.gallery / (206) 321-8837

Al Varady / al@solas.gallery / (206) 498-7135

<https://www.solas.gallery>

300 S Washington St Unit Z, Seattle, WA 98104